

The New York Times

A Journey of Reclamation Reaches a Peak in Spain

«Ms. Berger's personal masterpieces, however, maybe her own houses ...

... the most inspired touches are her ceramics installations; otherworldly fireplaces, headboards and window treatments concocted of marble dust, marble lime and glue inlaid with mosaic tile that she makes by hand. They look almost as if they are blooming, bringing feminine balance to what might otherwise feel like an overly linear space

... it's like a fairytale»